SPD Wives Scholarship Fund

The SPD Wives group was founded in 2013 and continues to support the various needs of law enforcement officers and their families. The SPD Wives group objective is to bring fellow wives of Springfield Police officers together to provide support and encouragement. The goal of SPD wives is to strengthen the officer/ wife relationship through education opportunities and various support efforts. In outreach, SPD wives joins forces with established agencies to better support the community.

The Blue Line Scholarship was created by the Springfield Police Department Wives group. The funds to support the scholarship are made possible by annual Blue Line events in and around Springfield, Missouri. This scholarship is designed to support relatives of current, retired, medically discharged, or fallen law enforcement officers and their post high school educational plans. We look forward to reviewing your application and thank you for your interest in this scholarship.

The recipients of the Blue Line Scholarship will be recognized at the fourth annual Blue Line event in June 2024. The recipients will be contacted by May 3, 2024 to acknowledge their achievement and be provided with more details about accepting the scholarship certificate at the Blue Line event. Two scholarship awards in the amount of $1,500 will be provided directly to the college/ trade school/ training in which the recipients are attends during the Fall 2024 semester.
